Configuring Remote Desktop Connection for External Audio Devices

Before you begin
- Please note, your home device must have an audio input and output device:
  - Input
    - Built-in or attached microphone
    - Headset with a microphone
  - Output
    - Built-in or attached speakers
    - Headset

Get started
1. From Remote Desktop Connection, select the Show Options drop down
2. Navigate to the Local Resources tab
3. Click Settings...
4. Select Play on this computer
5. Select Record from this computer
6. Click OK
Configuring Remote Desktop Connection for External Audio Devices

7. Under the Local devices and resources section, select More...
8. Select Ports
9. Select other supported Plug and Play (PnP) devices
10. Click OK